WIM UK International Women's Day Fireside Chat

Gina Jardine (Chair of the Board, Women in Mining UK)
Gina Jardine is a global human resources professional with over 30 years' experience in senior strategic and operational roles, including more than half of her career working for mining companies, namely Rio Tinto and Kinross Gold Corporation. She retired from her executive career in 2023 and founded her own boutique consultancy working with leaders to design and transform their businesses putting people and culture at the heart of what they do. Gina has lived and worked in the UK, Australia and Canada, and is now based in London. She is a Non-Executive Director of the Board of Forterra Plc.

Sabina Shugg (Non Executive Director, Resolute Mining Ltd; WIM100 2013)
Sabina is a Non-Executive Director of Resolute Mining Ltd and Tellus Holdings Ltd and is the Founder and Chair of Women in Mining and Resources WA (WIMWA). She recently completed four years as the Director - Kalgoorlie Campus, Curtin University including the WA School of Mines, and a three year term as Chair of Goldfields Esperance Development Commission. With a background as a mining engineer, Sabina has extensive experience in senior roles with mining and consulting organisations in Australia including delivering technical and operational mining projects from conceptual design to project handover as well as operations management experience at senior site level covering both underground and open pit environments.

Annie Llewellyn (Unit Manager: Underground Mining - Invincible, Gold Fields)
Angharad (Annie) Llewellyn is the Manager of Underground Mining for the Invincible Mine at Gold Fields' St Ives operation. A mining engineer with over 20 years of experience in the resources sector, Annie is passionate about mentoring future leaders and fostering curious, inclusive teams. Annie emigrated from the UK to the Goldfields of Western Australia nearly 19 years ago and has been an active member of the Kalgoorlie community, particularly through her involvement with local sports clubs. Annie graduated from the Camborne School of Mines and has completed post graduate study at Federation University in Australia.

Catherine Adair (Director, External Engagement, Europe, Teck Resources Ltd)
Catherine Adair is the Director, External Engagement, Europe at Teck Resources Limited, a leading Canadian resource company focused on responsibly providing metals essential to economic development and the energy transition. Teck has a portfolio of world-class copper and zinc operations across North and South America and an industry-leading copper growth pipeline. We are focused on creating value by advancing responsible growth and ensuring resilience built on a foundation of stakeholder trust. Catherine has worked at Teck for 16 years in corporate and site-based roles.

Dr Robina McCann (VP Health, Anglo American)
Dr Robina McCann is the Vice President Health at Anglo American, where she leads the global strategies to enhance worker health and wellbeing, manage fatigue and coordinate asset emergency response systems. She has a 20 + year professional career supporting major industries including remote operations on land, marine and fixed offshore oil and gas assets globally. She is responsible for creating business value through innovative health and wellbeing programmes that improve worker productivity while supporting sustainable business delivery goals.

Nichole McCulloch (Managing Director, Stratum International; WIM100 Sponsor)
'Named one of the 100 most influential people in African Mining, Nichole founded and managed Clifton Hill Associates, a global executive search and advisory firm that merged with Stratum International.
She works within the Natural resources sectors, advising clients on creating a proactive strategy around talent and leadership at an executive and board level, partnering on issues such as sustainability, diversity, and governance. Nichole is keenly attuned to the ever-changing needs of these sectors and the evolving skill set required for successful placements of executive and board talent.